We've been banging on every door praying theres gotta be more been living the underdog, living the underdog law we've been taking whatever we can get
'cos I guess they aint getting it yet we're living the underdog living the underdog law

Said I hated banging on the door like the bailiffs to them its a game but the hearts not to play with sitting there twiddling your thumbs when you know that you're the shit but they're giving you the runs around its sad saying that its underground its mad when Emeli sung this loud I was glad I felt it in my heart and it came at a time where we battled in the charts you're number one to I and this is musical heaven I can see the light I can see the signs when I was struggling on the road trying to make something for your soul I guess goose bumps central's a touching little zone and that's when me and Emelis' at home but you wont find us real musicians no mimers you could feel this tingle down your back if you were spineless this will make you jump out of your seat and try and sign us now you can't remember me and me Alzheimer's can't say it any better than this being the hottest underground is a hell of a gift heaven sent almost like putting wings on our disc kites flying off the shelves they got wind it's the ish And I don't get overwhelmed over sales I'm more touched when a fan says that I vocal well Or something I said made him go and hold his girl I gave him faith when the whole world told him go to hell
I do this for the love I'm yours I guess I've been a prisoner of the underdog law

I know that the journeys been long but one day we'll be proving them wrong
been living the underdog living the underdog law I know that the journeys is long but one day we'll be proving them wrong
been living the underdog living the underdog law for all of the tears that we've lost we're finally here looking up living the underdog living the underdog law living the underdog living the underdog living the underdog law.
