yo man
you know what! what?
here me and sarah going down she saw me talking to shorty the other day, man shorty hip on the block?
yeah you remember shorty! yeah!
that was a nothing man
we we're just having a conversation about the studio no doubt but no, sarah had to take you somewhere else I mean, she knows I'm down for her forever for sure
I don't know why she even go there man
what?
I guess I'm staying with you tonight though sarah:

heeyyy, hooo
ain't gonna take this no more no
no babyyyy

[chorus]2x
Bounce baby out the door
I ain't gonna take this no more
Bounce baby out the door
Get up and move
Don't make me act a fool
Just bounce

(verse 1)
Said you're going with your boys today and
"Don't worry cause I'll be home late"
But I know you're cheatin' out there, creepin', You've been freakin' babe
So let me tell you how it's going to be
And you can run your game but not on me boy
So who the hell are you trying to kid
You know this is what I did

(change)

I called your pager and your two-way boy but no
response

Start looking and found you in some other women's arms

Don't try to front boy cause I saw you there with my own eyes

Just get your stuff boy cause I'm tired of hearing all your lies

[chorus]2x

Bounce baby out the door

I ain't gonna take this no more

Bounce baby out the door

Get up and move

(verse 2)

Baby boy I know you'll never find

No stuff as good as mine

She can't work you like I did

You can look but you know I got that good shit

I know that you're hating it

But you better stay with the one you're with

You made your bed and now you have to sleep in it baby

(change)

I called your pager and your two-way boy but no
response

Don't try to front boy cause I saw you there with my own
eyes

your lies

[chorus]2x

Bounce baby out the door

I ain't gonna take this no more

Bounce baby out the door

Get up and move

Just bounce

[rap]

Wait a minute Sarah, give me a chance to explain

I was just talking to shorty, I don't even know her name

I ain't looking for no one to come and take your place Ain't no one out there baby that can fill your space
No need to find a nickel got a dime at home
Plus I love every night the freaky way we bone
I ain't trying to get gone, ain't trying to play a roll I'd rather stay and be a part of your green eyed soul

[chorus]

Bounce baby out the door
I ain't gonna take this no more
Bounce baby out the door
Get up and move
Just bounce baby out the door
I ain't gonna take this no more
