"How they were lies to me, now I can see
Given these gifts, I will lead you to me
Leaning your heads on the least agony
I might have to chase you, I shall never free

I opened up my eyes
When they'd open up the door
Set me free, and I might go back for more

(I've got) Something in my heart(in my heart)
Something in my soul(in my soul)
(I've got) Something in this body I must show
I've been waiting all my life
Working dusk till dawn
(And) finally my number has been called
