I can see my fantasy I'm so consumed in bed
What I see takes over me I'm blind beyond repair
It takes a hold of me so tight a grip that does not give
And when she's done she throws me out like junk left in a shelf

Yeah

I wanna have the right
I wanna feel the night
All around the stars
Wanna take a flight
And get back on my sights
All around the stars

I can see all my words I can feel the warming breeze
I can see through forests I can hear her breathe

Walking for a thousand miles I can see the road
And at the end I find I'm with her sharing each's soul

Yeah

I wanna have the right
I wanna feel the night
All around the stars
Wanna take a flight
And get back on my sights
All around the stars

Walking a solo ride
Trying to realize
God I'm so mixed up
I will find you

I wanna have the right
I wanna feel the night
All around the stars
Wanna take a flight
And get back on my sight
All around the stars

Yeah

I want to have the right

God I want to feel the night
All around the stars
I want to have the right
I want to feel the night
All around the stars

As the ink runs deep
It left me a mark
It's against my heart
