Miss Me Too

Nobody here does a single thing
That could persuade me to see that everything's still open
Have another drink well, it comes to think
Maybe it's just that I stayed up late

Or the coming to terms with my fate and fortune
It's my lucky day
In a bitter way
I can't take the pain Anymore

I never meant to waste your time
Or to drag the past out of the blue
Oh no, it's just that I
I'd be so much better if I knew

The queens of the night they come undone
And got os leep with their make-up on Dreaming
That they are woken fast
By a love that lasts
I watch them as they wave goodbye
Shattered, the sadness in their eyes, fading

In a bitter way
We're all the same
Words that echo on the streets
At midnight
as the cleaners come again

I never meant to waste your time
Or to drag the past out of the blue
Oh no, it's just that I
I'd be so much better if I knew
That you miss me too

And all the days are just the same
They numb my soul and shoot me through
Oh no, it's just that I

I'd be so much better if I knew
That you miss me to

Jupiter he laughs in my face
Wants to get his teeth knocked out
Feels like everything's in vane
Feels like I am just about to break

I never meant to waste your time
Or to drag the past out of the blue
oh no, it's just that I
I'd be so much better if I knew
That you miss me too

That you miss me to
So much better if I knew
That you miss me too
