I've known you all my life
At least thats how it seems
Never known my own way
Livin' out of dreams
Now I know you're leaving me
And I'll never understand
Before I let you walk away
I have one last demand

Tell me a lie, and say that you wont go
Look in my eyes, and hold me even though
I realize you have to walk away
No more yesterday...

You always were my angel
Flying high above
Always lookin out for me
Angel that I love
Now my dreams are fading
Like age-old photographs
They hurt too much to look at now
Reminds Me Of Our Past

Tell me a lie, and say that you wont go
Look in my eyes, and hold me even though
I realize you have to walk away
No more yesterday...

Maybe we could stay together
Maybe it could last forever
Maybe if you'd just tell me a lie
Maybe then we'll never say goodbye
