I called you on the phone to say I love you
And that I'd stop by for you at nine
And my heart broke when you said it's all over
That someone else would take up all your time

And that's an awful lot of heartaches for a dime
I'll never know what made you change your mind
I only know I've held you close and kissed you my last time

And that's a lot of heartaches for a dime
[fiddle - steel]

I went downtown to join the marry makers
And told myself that here's where I belong
I thought that I could get along without you
Until I heard somebody play our song

And that's an awful lot of heartaches...
