The job that stands before me won't be easy May not live to see the day you love me too But I'll die tryin' cause all I live for is you

Competition's always great that's what they tell me And I know that every word of this is true But I'll die tryin' cause all I live for is you

I'm gettin' tired of playin' ring-around-a-rosie But I won't give up like you want me to do Oh this heart inside of me can't last forever Cause it fights the battle that is sure to lose But I'll die tryin' cause all I live for is you [steel] I'm gettin' tired of playin'... Yes I'll die tryin' cause all that I live for is you
