I know it's time for leaving
I don't wanna look in your eyes
You say: "I never noticed you anyway"
So it should come as no surprise
I can hear you leave
I guess it's alright
You say that I got no heart
But it only comes at night
They say, don't know what you have
Today it ain't what you've got
They say I'll find out how much I miss you
But you know that I'd rather not
Now it's time for leaving
It's gonna be alright
You say that I got no heart
But it only comes at night
You say I'll never find another
To love me like you do
But what good is some kind of lover
Who would do, do those things to you?
Don't go by that door
I'll get it myself
Soon as you're leaving
Is replaced by someone else
I don't wanna see you
Don't turn on the lights
You say that I never saw anything
But it only comes out at night
