I know I should go home now but how can I leave
There's more loneliness there than you'd ever believe
Let's talk it over let me change your mind
It's so cold in your house and lonesome in mine

It's so cold in your house and lonesome in mine
But I'd rather have you cold than be lonely all the time
So put your arms around me just one more time
It's so cold in your house and lonesome in mine

I keep coming back to see you and I'd like to stay
But you treat me as if I'm only in your way
You don't make me feel welcome yet you're not unkind
Do you still remember when your house was mine

It's so cold in your house...
Oh it's so cold here in your house and lonesome in mine
