Live for life
Free your mind
We'll survive
Let love unlock the door, yeah

Live for life and
Free your mind 'cause
We'll survive
Let love unlock the door, yeah

As the sun rises every morning
I go see to his power right away
While asleep we know the world has been turning
Tell me, is today gonna be the day?

For so long, I've been thinking
Are we wasting the gifts that we've been given?
Love conquers every heart
Let love unlock the door, yeah

While half the world is meditating
Does the other half seem a world away?
Ain't nothing wrong with celebrating
We got the same blood rushing through our veins

And doing it makes you want to hate life
When you can't recognize that man is your brother
Love conquers every heart
Let love unlock the door, yeah

How come you cry?
I don't understand why half the world is still crying
And the wind is still crying to me
Gotta get it together
Just for one day, man
But I tell you that one day
Better be your life
You know you can say it's hard
You can cry the whole year
But you're gonna lose that one day
You gotta call that love

Live for life (you gotta call that love)
Free your mind (for the girl I love)
We'll survive (if we)
Let love unlock the door, yeah
