Just let your mind go
And everything will follow
My first impression

No one else understands
Here we are take my hand
Take my hand

See with your eyes closed
Tell me where you go
Speak from the inside
Don't let your heart grow cold
See with you eyes closed

This silent pleasure
Will it last forever?
They say we're blinded

No one else understands
Here we are take my hand
Take my hand

See with your eyes closed
Tell me where you go
Speak from the inside
Don't let your heart grow cold
See with you eyes closed

Don't waste your breath on words
The meaning disappears
Everything you know was lying next to you
All these years
All these years

See with your eyes closed
Tell me where you go
Speak from the inside
Don't let your heart grow cold
See with you eyes closed
