"The Only God"

Tonight I'm on top of the world with you
We crash to the depths of the deepest blue
This will be my newfound glory
I'll do anything that you want me to

Fill me with your symphony of darkness and tranquillity
Fill me with your symphony of darkness and stupidity

You're the only God I know
You're the only God I know

Tonight I'm on top of the world with you
Strung high at the edge of the perfect view
This will be my newfound glory
I'll do anything that you want me to

You're the only God I know
You're the only God I know

You've seen the best and worst of me
The good and bad the bittersweet
You lift me up and bring me back down
To my knees

You make my life complete
