Name STRONG MAN

Interpret RJM

Jahr 1989

Schreib r Ralph

You were slipping through the backdoor of my memory,
like a hunter in the desert
looking for the sea.

You told me a thousand things

I really didn't want to hear

Now I know the colour of your tiny brothers hair.

And I said "Good luck" as you went away,

Misunderstanding filled the room,

I said "Good luck" as you went away,

and I buried my head down in the gloom.

I found a small bird

in the streets that night.

It was lying there

with a broken wing.

And then the rain came down to clean it's soul

before it really was taken away.

Tell me: Strong man -- do you believe?

Weak man -- you will receive!

Strong man -- do you believe?

Weak man -- you will receive

Hard man -- you're gonna fight

Tough man -- you're looking right

Straight man -- where do you go?

Strange man -- you love her so
