Back in high school my imagination ran wild,
Of all the things I'd do to you.
But my love had a strangle hold on me,
And she cursed your name a thousand times,
But I've got you now.
And you helped me out of this hole I've been stuck in for years now,
And now there aint shit that I gotta fix for once.
Now stay with me cause I need you more than you will
ever know,
And then I'll scream at the top of my lungs I'll love you forever.
Theres not a single thing in the world that would keep me from you,
I have waited so long to finally kiss your lips,
And I wont give you up now.
And our love will grow and eclipse all the others below,
Cause there aint shit that I gotta fix no more.
Now stay with me cause I need you more than you will
ever know,
And then I'll scream at the top of my lungs I'll love you
forever
Theres not a place or time that I can go without thinking of how beautiful you are to me,
You are all I need.
