There is not one single person in the world that I owe more than you,
If I could turn back the time, we'd play I Spy literally all the time,
Cause I remember your racecar, and milkshakes with
fries after the doctor,
We had tales of vampires, Frankenstein, and haunted rocking chairs and there's no way your leaving just yet.

I'll give back everything I have,
If it means you'll stay.
Cause my life is simply incomplete,
If it's any other way

And this is so hard to have to see you like this,
I know we named you broke but I really want you fixed,
But all we can do is sit and wait here patiently,
Until I can see your face smiling up at me.
Cause I remember your racecar, and milkshakes with
fries after the doctor,
And I just need you to know that in my heart you'll always be with me.

I'll give back everything I have,
If it means you'll stay.
Cause my life is simply incomplete,
If it's any other way
And I won't give up on you I swear,
You can test me every way,
But when we finally say goodbye,
I know I'll see you again some day.
