From 'shock and awe' to 'cut and run' the parlance of our times is shut your mouth or ship it out
"We don't need you traitorous swine!"

Tropes that tie the noosefrom mediating whores
to bastard criticizers who dare to question W's war

Vagaries of verse
In sound-bite serenade
The Crawford-Texas curse?
Veracity is vilified again!

Boiling under pressure quixotic aspirations hem the wheel and the blindness of the captain steers Jesusland through icy waters still full steam ahead!!!
