Revive a sense of hope
Amidst these abandoned dreams
Rewrite what it is to feel
In hopes it will carry me home

Drift in and out
The light of morning drags me back
I need release
Separate this body from my mind

Send me home (x2)

My conscience, there to send me off to sleep
When I need you closer
For when I wake I am greeted by shades of gray
I'll return to you
I'll return to you

In dreams, the sun sets in our eyes.
In dreams, we'll never be apart.
In dreams, I'll promise you'll never be alone.
How much I wish your voice could send me home.
