I've seen it in your eyes
Looks like your sneaking and all your lies
They did catch up to you this time
I swear i heard you say
Blood is forever
Love is forever
I can fool myself all that i want
But I saw the room, I heard your voice, I saw your eyes
The truth will always get the best of you inside or out
It took me two years to find that i wasted five years of my life
Felt the truth within you and i saw red
So I guess we are the long goodbye
What wasted time
I always hoped somehow it never happened to us
But it is something that did
And something that I can't forget
And after all of our times
You Turned and did what you did
This was days and weeks of deceit
You turned and walked away
You said you'd be back tomorrow
Well tomorrow had come and gone
Looks like your choking on all the lies
They did catch up with you this time
I swear i heard you say blood is forever
Well it seems forever meant nothing to you
It meant nothing but i swear i heard you say
Blood is forever
