I'd give my life for this to change
There's no excuse for what I've done
Now I must prove that I truly love
After all we said, how could I lie Disappointed myself
Disappointed you, for what
Ask for forgiveness
I'm so disappointed in myself, and so sorry for what I've done all of that time I was so weak blinded by lust I could not think
If you give me one more chance
I promise I will not fail you
I will stay never betray
I am sorry regretting what I have done
I need to fix this, make you see
You need to know, that was not me
