I think I love my girlfriend
I might of been stupid when
I told her we may not work
Never knew how much that hurts
And I didn't really think it out
There was too many girls around
My ego was bisurk
Didn't catch that red alert

And after thinkin' bout the fun times that we spent
What I know now I wish I knew back then because...

I didn't even try to make it work
No...
I'm sorry cos it feels so bad and my hearts so sad that
I'm here without you
I think I love my girlfriend... yeaah
No one could ever take her place
I wanna see her face in my arms again
I think I love my girlfriend... yeah

I was in a silly place
Too many friends playin' games
Thought it made me cool
Hangin' out with all my dudes
And one thing that I didn't mention
I didn't give enough attention
Now I'm like a fool
What else am I suppose to do

And after thinkin' bout the fun tims that we spent
What I know now
I wish I knew back then because...

I didn't even try to make it work
No...
I'm sorry cos it feels so bad and my hearts so sad that
I'm here without you giiir!
I think I love my girlfriend... ha
No one could ever take her place
I wanna see her face in my arms again

I think I love my girlfriend... yeah

And girl you know
I always loved you so much
I got so caught up
On too much of nothing
Bein' young
I always wanted for us to still be in love
Even after we grew up... baby

I didn't even try to make it work
I'm sorry cos it feels so bad and my hearts so sad that
I'm here without you woooooah!
I think I love my girlfriend
No one could ever take her place
I wanna see her face in my arms again
I didn't even try to make it work
I'm sorry cos it feels so bad and my hearts so sad that
I'm here without you
I think I love my girlfriend... oh
No one could ever take her place
I wanna see her face in my arms again
I think I love my girlfriend... yeah

Heeeey I think I love my girlfriend
Woooooah!
