These desperate times call for desperate measures.
In these conservative times, you're making conservative art,

And it's boring, boring, boring, boring,
It's boring, boring, boring, boring us all to death.

Somewhere out in the woods, there's a kid who's working
Making the best shit that you've ever seen, or you've heard,
Or you've drunk, or you've tasted.
And somewhere out in the desert, there's another kid waiting

And it's boring, boring, boring, boring,
It's boring, boring, boring, boring us all to death.

All the kids in the city may or may not have it easy.
At this point, it's so hard to tell.

It's boring! It's boring! It's boring! It's boring!

You can live anywhere you want.

Do you live in the city, or do you live in the woods?
Do you live in the woods, or do you live in the desert?
Do you live in the desert, or do you live on the beach?
Do you live on the beach, or do you live in a small town?
Do you live in a small town, or do you live in a cave?
Do you live in a cave, or do you live underwater?
