"Stand Up"

Pick me up, but I will fall to the next stair
Pick me up, and help me see what you see
And why can't I...
(But you try and you fall down
And you stay down
And there's no help)
And try to hide my eyes
(And you try but you fall down
And you stay down
And there's no help for you)

Stand up and make yourself count
Stand up and stop yourself from falling
Stand up and make yourself count
Stand up and stop yourself from falling

Pick me up, but I will fall into next week
Pick me up, and help me hear what they say to me
And why can't I...
(But you try and you fall down
And you stay down
And there's no help)
And try to hide my eyes
(And you try but you fall down
And you stay down
And there's no help for you)

Stand up and make yourself count
Stand up and stop yourself from falling
Stand up and make yourself count
Stand up and stop yourself from falling

And you try and you fall down
And you stay down
And there's no help

Stand up and make yourself count
Stand up and stop yourself from falling
Stand up and make yourself count
Stand up and stop yourself from falling

[I, HelloDrama, have tried to figure out the lyrics.
They are 99% right. Don't hate.]
