Trapped you into lookin' the other way around
As you walked by when the sun goes down
I said hey!
My love is no lie
Head over heels I've fallen so fast
Don't you know that my loves don't last
But right now
My love is no lie

Can't you see when I sleep in your arms
I might get up and slip away
Can't you see that I love you this way
That it's never the sun
And it's never the rain
That it's always the cold heart that kills

Talked you into drivin' the other day to town
Figured it was over I would cruise, look around
I thought hey
I told you no lie
Feelin' kinda empty, no one catchin' my eye

A real strange thing - no key to my life
I thought hey
I'm livin' a lie

You'd been everything, knowing and warm self control had disappeared
I had told you my usual tale
That it's never the sun
And it's never the rain
But it's always the cold heart that kills

You trapped me into lookin' the other way around
As I walked by and my hair came down
I said hey!
My love is no lie

Now you see when I sleep in yours arms
I don't wanna slip away
Now you see that I love you this way
That it's never the sun

And it's never the rain
That it's always the cold heart that kills
