(oooh) oooh (oooh) oo-oo-oooh (ahhh, ah yeah) gotta get rid of you this time (yeah) gonna clean up house (oo-oo-oo-oooh) yeah (ahhhh, ah yeah) 'cuz I'm a clean up woman (ahhh yeah) thought you were cold as ice now you gotta make the sacrifice boy, you losin' me look at the mess you made now you're begging me not to leave you must have lost your mind, well, well first time it was shame on you and the second time it was shame on me well, now it's here - third degree and that's time for you to leave though your lies and your excuses for me, it did come useless you're cryin' and pleadin' a dollar short, a day too late [Chorus:]
baby, baby
you know you shoulda been by me and now I gotta set you free
baby, baby
say you could've been a man now I gotta find someone who can yeah, yeah, yeah ooh ohh, oh oh ohhh ohh my, my my-my-my-my my my now I was cold as ice said it was nothing nice I know (lyin', cheatin', had it up to here) well, well (hey, hey) thought I owe you my life I can see all in your eyes for sure (usin', abusin', gonna catch a case, hey, hey) all the things you said were lies then except the way you cried when I left but you know I'm gone, no regrets

(no regrets, no)
and all your tired-ass excuses like you, it did come useless and if you think that I'll come running you ain't seen nothing yet [repeat chorus]
there was a day that I would give you almost everything and there's no doubt about it, heyy heyyy and there was a time I used to long for how we used to be but now I'm tied of cryin' [repeat chorus (ad-lib) twice] (ooh, ooh) (no, no, no, no)
you know you shoulda been by me (hit the road, Jack) oo-oo-oooh the house, the kids (hit the road, Jack) the keys, I want it all gonna bring you to your knees gonna clean up house, ohhhh yeah (ahh ahhh) ooo-oooh
(well, well) ooooooh
