I've been here a while staring at the screen
Wondering what I'll write
Things I can't explain
But should have tried to say
When I had the time

And you were inspiration
When no one else believed
You showed me strength in my skin
That no one else could see

Let's just keep driving on
All the stars jumping in through the windows
Let's go where we belong
Headed fast as we can for the unknown

I remember how, like a telescope,
You could always find
Something worth a wish
You said "Every day's a gift"
And "We'll be alright"

And something took you from me
I can't understand why
But wherever you're resting
I'm carrying your light

Let's just keep driving on
All the stars jumping in through the windows
Let's go where we belong
Headed fast as we can for the unknown
You can stay there and it's not fair
Those were the days when we laughed all the while
When the fireflies lit up our skies
Those were the nights when the world made us smile

You're my only hope, you're my telescope
My only hope, you're my telescope
My only hope, you're my telescope
My only hope, you're my telescope
My only hope, you're my telescope

Let's just keep driving on
Let's go where we belong

Let's just keep driving on
All the stars jumping in through the windows
Let's go where we belong
Headed fast as we can for the unknown
You can stay there and it's not fair
Those were the days where we laughed all the while
When the fireflies lit up our skies
Those were the nights when the world made us smile

My only hope, you're my telescope
(My only hope, you're my telescope)
My only hope, you're my telescope
(My only hope)
My only hope, you're my telescope
