Visit "Trembling" on MotoLyrics.com

I'm torn between silence and violent expression tired of believing everyone wants to care and cherish someone I'm so scared of never having anyone
Haunted by my abandoned dreams
Tiny voices where would be screams
Now be still, it won't be long
We will be together in search of a new life
Striving as one in this world to find something pure I'm missing you now
I'm quite sure
That I've finally found someone
