We've just landed
Alright, send a search party out
Don't, don't get caught up on this planet, man
This humans are crazy
Just don't even show 'em your microphones 'cause then you know what
They wanna give you a record deal and then
You end up dead, you know what I mean, it's like body snatchers
But you know what
We love hip hop
Stop, please stop, please
Okay here we go, chu chu, yeah

Holdin' my raps
Olden is golden and black
Extollin' virtues o' rap
With monkeys ridin' my back
I see them fallin'
Doin' commercials and ballin'
I'm not a hater but she's closin' but she's closin' the gate we stall in
Woke up in the early mornin'
I heard a voice
That showed me the things to come and told me I had a choice
To build it
Three hundred cubits by fifty cubits
Drinkin' thinkin' I'm stupid but deep in my heart I knew it
Money and fame, could lead to emcee murdah
You think you can escape but you can't take it any further
You call it writer's block but you stop 'cause the vine is empty
Hip hop's not dead
It's really the mind of the emcee

Chorus
It's all around me
It's emcee murdah
Though God has found me
I thought I heard the Sound of a thousand angels

It's the sound of danger
Know myself but I'm still a stranger
Emcee murdah, emcee murdah

I be damned if I do
And damned if I don't
My soul won't
Allow me to fake on the phone
Rockin' the chrome
Another seed gets sown anonymous
I'm hailin' from parts that's unknown
I look to the heavens above
To spread love
But emcees keep fakin'
Hopin' to make the bacon
Man is mistaken
'Cause who we are's not physical Very mystical with the mind non-typical but
They want the cash flow
They steady schemin' for the number one spot
These emcees they won't last though
I really feel somebody's watchin' me
From the furthest star and tellin' us who we are
In this universe
You like a speck o' dust
You can't expect to trust
Man is livin' for the lust
Everybody wants the eye in the sky
To come and save us
But maybe
The planet itself will terminate us with the...

Chorus (x2)
Oh no no no
