I swear by the light
There is no more delight
Than what I am getting from you
On the altar burning for you

Metal touching velvet skin
Flaming words burning within
I close my eyes
On whirling skies
Let your
Judgement Day begin.

Initiate destruction sequence
Sin and lies
Here comes your last dance
My blood is clean
My soul pristine
Still flying
Over fields unseen.

Strike that gong
Sing a sacred song
Find out where you belong
Separating right from wrong.

Metal touching velvet skin
Flaming words burning within
I close my eyes
On whirling skies
Let your
Judgement Day begin.
A touch too much
Will be salvation
Initiation
Gateway to higher notion.

Strike that gong
Sing a sacred song
Find out where you belong
Separating right from wrong.
