Come into the light, passing through wisdom
Hoping for love, all of the moves
Don't come across, you get too much
Everybody needs it, don't show your body

So dangerous, so dangerous, this fear of love
So dangerous, so dangerous, can you handle it?
Dangerous, so dangerous, to love
So dangerous, anybody else can do it

Walking the street, you're breaking your love
Lose your heart, all in a mess
In the middle of the night, looking for a little Hands to the sun, don't show your body

Death defying, hurt by love
Passing through shadows, don't lose, don't lose, don't lose your body

Dangerous, so dangerous, this fear of love
Dangerous, can you handle it?
It's so dangerous to keep this fear of love
Dangerous, just let it go

I don't imagine, I don't imagine as it is Don't get confused, don't get confused

In the light, through the night
Look in the light, in the night
Look in the light, through the night
Look in the light, through the night

Look in the light, through the night
Look in the light of what you're searching for

Hide from your heart here in the arms of wanting Hide from the dark here in the arms of love
Run from the fear inside the darkest reaches
Look to yourself, you'll see the light up here

Dangerous, so dangerous this fear of love
Dangerous, can you handle it?

It's so dangerous to keep this fear of love
Dangerous just let it go

Dangerous, get to the heart of love
Dangerous, get to the heart of love
Dangerous, get to the heart of love
Dangerous, get to the heart of love
