That's what you say
Could it really happen to you?
Does that explain
This is the season for this display?
To take a look
In time to move together

Time is the measure before it's begun
Slips away like running water
Live for the pleasure, live by the gun
Heritage for son and daughter
Down to the slaughter up for the fun
Up for anything

Could this be true
Does it ever happen to you?
And can you prove
That wheels go 'round in reason?
You take a step
In time to move together

Time is the measure before it's begun
Slips away like running water
Live for the pleasure, live by the gun
Heritage for son and daughter
Down to the slaughter, up for the fun
Up for anything

You walk the way, you take the path
To be assured, you draw a graph
The scale you use is all on black
Be brave, the weight will make the heat
There is no way to take it back

Time is the measure before it's begun
Slips away like running water
Live for the pleasure, live by the gun
Heritage for son and daughter
Down to the slaughter, up for the fun
Up for up for up for anything

That's what you say

Could it really happen to you
Does that explain
The very reason for this display
To take a look
In time to move together, together
