Who would have believed a man could do so much
Who would have believed the millions he would touch
How he touches the hearts?
How he touches the hearts?

Who would believe there'd be one man to do it
Who would believe in this one man's love
How he touches the lives together?
How he touches the hearts?

Saviour of all that is good for us
Saviour of all that is real
Saviour of all of our souls
For heaven's sake, for heaven's sake

Who could believe in the dreams left unspoken
Who could believe in the dreams yet to come
Who could believe one man had this promise
To share this love of life
To share this love of life

Saviour of all that is true to us
Saviour of all of our dreams
Saviour of all that is good for us
Just one man, just one man

Who would believe one man had this promise
Who would believe that one man could be strong
Knowing how we wanted to understand
How did we belong

Who would believe one man gave us reason
Who would believe one man sang a song
Knowing how we wanted to realize
Where we all belong

Saviour of all that is glorious
To give us eternal life
Saviour of all that is glorious
To show us where we belong, to show us where we belong

He was just one man, just one man
He was just one man
