I am the man in the moon
And I hope to shine upon you very soon
Waiting in the night
To bathe you all in moonlight
I am the man
I am the man in the moon
Silently
Revolving wandering through the heavens above
On my own round and round and round I go
When I stop
No one will know
I am the creature of the night
And I hope to come and shed a little light
Although the universe our teacher
I remain the central feature
I am the man
I am the man in the moon
Round and round and round I go
When I stop
No one will know
Silently
Revolving wandering through the heavens above
On my own
I am the man in the moon
And I hope to shine upon you very soon
Waiting in the night
To bathe you all in moonlight
I am the man
I am the man in the moon
Round and round and round I go
When I stop
No one will know
Round and round and round I go
When I stop
No one will know
Round and round and round I go
When I stop
No one will know
Round and round and round I go
When I stop
No one will know

It's that old devil moon
