I am the man in the moon
And I hope to shine upon you very soon
Waiting in the night
To bathe you all in moonlight

I am the man
I am the man in the moon

Silently revolving
Wandering through the heavens above
On my own

Round and round and round I go
When I stop, no one will know

I am a creature of the night
And I hope to come and shed a little light
Although the universe, our teacher
I remain the central feature

I am the man
I am the man in the moon

Round and round and round I go
When I stop no one will know

Silently revolving
Wandering through the heavens above
On my own

I am the man in the moon

Round and round
And I hope to shine upon you very soon

Round and round
Waiting in the night
To bathe you all in moonlight

I am the man
I am the man in the moon

Round and round and round I go
When I stop no one will know
Round and round and round I go
When I stop no one will know

Round and round and round I go
When I stop no one will know
Round and round and round I go
When I stop no one will know

It's that old devil moon
It's that old devil moon
