I just can't breath, just can't believe
When he got your hand
Somebody please, wont down on my knees
That's a night mare, I wont be there

You said, everything was over
When you get caught
His voice spell romantic sound

I said I believe that, everything was over
But just in minutes count
You've already bounce bounce

But every caught I get
Every night you let
Him ringing your phone

But every time I get
Every night you let
Me being alone

I just can't breath, just can't believe
When he got your hand
Somebody please, wont down on my knees
That's a night mare, I wont be there

Now just keep your thought
Save the words on your mouth
I already catch every lies
And now it's time to shake goodbye

Don't tell where you gonna be
This gonna be the last time you talk to me

But another caught I get Another night you let
Him ringing your phone

And every time I get
Every night you let
Me being alone

I just can't breath, just can't believe
When he got your hand
Somebody please, wont down on my knees
That's a night mare, I wont be there
