Next to me, I like your skin against my skin
We pretend this is the way it will be end, the end
Don't be afraid, to give what you have away.
Cause it's okay, if you let me stay. If you let Me stay...

I will light up a fire. with eyes burning up with desire
For me. and my eyes are saying I'm a liar. tell me
What you want. and it will be. it will be yours.
I'll be yours if you want me to be and if at first
You are unsure I wont hesitate to do more to let
You understand how I feel.

I will light up a fire. with eyes burning up with desire
For me. and my eyes are saying I'm a liar. tell me
What you want. and it will be. it will be yours.
I'll be yours if you want me to be

If you want me to be.
