It's taken me so long
To see where I've been wrong
And to see just where it was she'd gone

Now today I find
That I have been surprised
I see that she's been with me all along

Obviously she's the only one for me

I spent so many years
I cried so many tears
Thinking I should be another man

But now today I find
That I have seen the sign
Now I think I finally understand

Obviously she's the only one for me

She was under my feet
But I just couldnt see
She was in front of me
The obvious is so hard to see obviously

Ohhh la la la la la la la
Ohhh

Obviously she's the only one for me
Obviously the only one I ever need
Obviously she's the only one for me

Ohhh la la la la la la la
Ohhh
