Would you beg if I asked you to beg?
Would you flee from my awesome might?
Would you cry if I broke your kneecaps?
May I devour your soul tonight?

Would you tremble if I cut your face?
Would you scream if I sprayed you with mace?
Now would you die for the one you hate?
It's a rhetorical question. Now die.

I can be your villain baby
I'll accentuate your pain
I will torture you forever
I will take your breath away

Would you swear that I will not succeed?
Would you fight, would you save the day?
Am I insane?
Have I crossed the line?
Well that's a good question, let me ask your friends,
OH WAIT I MURDERED THEM!

I can be your villain baby
I'll accentuate your pain
I will torture you forever
I will take your breath away

Oooh
I just want to control your brain
I just want to invade your mind
Oh yeah

Am I insane?
Have I crossed the line?
Didn't you just ask me that?
Your friends are still dead, by the way.

I can be your villain baby
I'll accentuate your pain (That's correct!)
I will torture you forever
I will take your breath away

I can be your villain
And I'll accentuate your pain
And I will torture you forever
I will take your breath away

I shall take your breath away
I can be your nemesis
