I'm a statue in the light, a witness in the empty crowd Lost in thoughts, shrink by your touch, frozen silent, not a sound

Through the music you can see that by a vision I have captured

The fever of the night is raging, I only dream of what comes after

We know the scheme is in the air, no camouflaged
intentions

For starving hearts it never ends, so let's not be pretentious

I can't think about dancing, won't think about, I just think about you

I can't think about dancing, won't think about, I just
think about you

I can't think about dancing, all I think about is you

I can't think about dancing, I only think about you, just
think about you

Like the victim of the nightlife, so compelled to stay around you

Moving in electric silence, wondering what you'll lead me into

We know the scheme is in the air, no camouflaged
intentions

For starving hearts it never ends, so let's not be
pretentious

think about you

I can't think about dancing, won't think about, I just
think about you

I can't think about dancing, all I think about is you

think about you

Can't think about dancing just think about you,

can't think about dancing, just think about you

I can't think about dancing,

can't think about dancing, just think about you
