My image is hard and my attitude heavy
I'll take you out with the things that I say
I draw the crowds and whenever I'm ready
I got what it takes to blow them all away
I am your social and your cultural leader
I create fads and make all of the scenes
You know about me from your weekly reader
I'm on the cover of your magazines
'Cause I am one of the noticable ones, notice me
I am one of the noticable ones, notice me
I am one of the noticable ones, notice me
Notice me, notice me, noticable ones
I am one of the noticable ones, notice me
Notice me, notice me, noticable ones
My private life is scandalized by the public
But that's the price I have to pay for my fame
And all the liggers in my way with their cute tricks
Are getting over just by dropping my name
'Cause I am one of the noticable ones, notice me
I am one of the noticable ones, notice me
I am one of the noticable ones, notice me
Notice me, notice me, noticable ones
I am one of the noticable ones, notice me
Notice me, notice me, noticable ones
I am one of the noticable ones, notice me
Notice me, notice me, noticable ones
I am one of the noticable ones, notice me
Notice me, notice me, noticable ones
Noticeable ones, notice me
Noticeable ones, notice me
Noticeable ones, notice me
Noticeable ones, notice me
Noticeable ones, notice me
Noticeable ones, notice me, notice me
Noticeable ones
