"Stay With Me"

Books and covers and part time lovers
Spinning in rooms in cities of rust
Im stranded struck out on this line
There's smoke and fire and steel and wire
And glass and spire and dust
One to the floor at dawn with lips tied and drawn
Sleepless nights spent, with angels heaven sent

(chorus)

Stay with me, lay with me, lay down by my side
Stay with me, lay with me, take me deep inside
Lay with me, stay with me, lay with me stay...
With me...
Stay...with me

All of us lying there in the dreams
Speak of days and another place
I wander as the gypsy under a {bad penning room}
Speak of time, and another face
They would in languid cry a fleeting furtive sigh
From the cradle to the grave live to desire and crave

(chorus)

Ill laugh for you, and I'll dance for you
But don't ask me to she'd any tears when I have to go
You are a joy and a pleasure to love and to hold
Your promises, are as pure as the driven snow
Passing shapes in the night the touch distraut and light
As you brightly shine, your love tonight is mine

(chorus)
