Come on baby, what's on your mind
You're stumbling in the darkness
Like you're running blind

Hey, can't you see we've been fooling around
This same old graveyard
On the same playground

Be my late night movie star
By my nature I can tell who you are
Through all lies I see your bedroom eyes

There's no innocence
In your bedroom eyes
Baby, baby, got no self-defense
For your bedroom eyes

Over and over then we do it again
I haven't seen a stop sign
Since I don't know when

Up and down this lonely street
Guess I'll see you around
Is there any way to stop this merry go round

You're my late night movie star, ooh yes you are
By my nature I can tell who you are
Through all lies I see your bedroom eyes

There's no innocence
In your bedroom eyes
Baby, baby, got no self-defense
For your bedroom eyes

Ooh, baby, what's on your mind
Got no self-defense
Guess I'll see you around
