Step inside the dream machine
You're on a power drive
Feel the passion of the beast
Watch her come alive

Oh, you're almost there
Ride on silver air
You better hold on tight
She's fire in the night

Faster than the speed of light
Hugging all the curves, hang on to your life
Faster than the speed of light
Supercharged and flying low, liquid dynamite

Got your hands upon the wheel
Pedal's to the floor
Now it's time for nerves of steel
Hear the engine roar

Oh, you shoot the thrill
Heading for the kill
Got no control tonight
She's fire in the night

Faster than the speed of light
Hugging all the curves, hang on to your life
Faster than the speed of light
Supercharged and flying low, liquid dynamite

Rev it to the red line
You're tearing up the street
12 cylinders and she's all mine
She's tough to beat

Oh, you shoot to thrill
Heading for the kill
Got no control tonight
She's liquid dynamite

Faster than the speed of light
Hugging all the curves, hang on to your life

Faster than the speed of light
Supercharged and flying low, liquid dynamite

Faster than the speed of light
Hugging all the curves, hang on to your life
Faster than the speed of light
Supercharged and flying low, liquid dynamite
