Books and covers and part time lovers
Spinning in rooms, in cities of rust
I'm stranded, struck out on this line
There's smoke and fire and steel and wire
And glass and spire and dust

One to the floor at dawn with lips tied and drawn
Sleepless nights I've spent with Angels Heaven sent

Stay with me, lay with me, lay down by my side
Stay with me, lay with me, take me deep inside
Lay with me, stay with me, lay with me
Stay with me, stay with me

All of us lying, oh there in the dreams
Speak of days and another place
I wander as the gypsy under a beckoning moon
Speak of time and another face

Well they would in languid cry a fleeting furtive sigh
From the cradle to the grave love to desire and crave

Stay with me, lay with me, lay down by my side
Stay with me, lay with me, take me deep inside
Lay with me, stay with me, lay with me
Stay with me, stay with me

I'll laugh for you and I'll dance for you
But don't ask me to shed any tears when I have to go
You are a joy and a pleasure to love and to hold
Your promises is pure as the driven snow

Passing shapes in the night, the touch distraught and light
Well as you brightly shine, your love tonight is mine

Stay with me, lay with me, lay down by my side
Stay with me, lay with me, take me deep inside
Lay with me, stay with me, lay with me
Stay with me, stay with me

Stay, stay with me
Stay, stay, stay with me
