Thank you for pretending that you can see me in the dark

As if I was making sense

And what I say is what you really heard

'Cause baby baby baby, I'll be what I wanna be

Crazy as it may be, I'll die when I wanna

Lies set me free, lies keep me from my fear

Lies believe in me, lies heavenly shelter

Thank you for pretending that I don't cry and I don't care

That my heart is made of clay and I will keep sailing away

'Cause baby baby baby, I'll be what I wanna be

Crazy as it may be, I'll die when I wanna

Lies believe in me, lies heavenly shelter

Thank you for pretending that I got some skin around my bones

Thank you for pretending that I'll never never never let you go

Lies set me free, lies keep me from my fear

Lies believe in me, lies heavenly shelter.
