English Version:

Two of us walk into the kind light
My heart is lifting
Even my frozen white breath
I don't mind that at all

A contrail enjoys its new birth
I want to follow you forever
The dream that you pointed at
I wish I can fly with you

Even when I'm feeling down,
You encouraged me by my side
You listened to me with nods.

Starts from this newly born season
Rhythms are composing and echoing
It's been this way and it'll always be Hold on tight with this feeling

Breathe in the spring air brought slowly by the wind
Taking a careful step in this present moment that won't happen twice

Talk about good things over and over
When I ask you out, you are ready for me right away
It can't be possible, if I'm alone
That is just like a bouquet

The future that we looked up was certainly continuing
I'm sensing bright days in the passing time
The spring is looking at us
