I need the ginger tea

I see your face looking into the space
All tired and worried
Why does it have to be like this, you and I
I wanted us to be happy

No one can see me like you do
No one can see you like I do

I see your face with a trace of life
Being a wife and a woman
If I ever hurt you please remember
I wanted you to be happy

Is there anything I want more
More than your trust and understanding

No one can see me like you do
No one can see you like I do

I wanna quit moving, I wanna quit running
I wanna relax and be tender
I wanna see us together again
Rocking away in our walnut chairs

Even with your warmth and closeness
The feeling of loneliness hangs on like a curse

No one can see me like you do
No one can see you like I do

But even with our dreams and yearnings
Feeling of loneliness hangs over like a thirst

No one can see me like you do
No one can see you like I do
No one can see me like you do
No one can see you like I do

No one can see me like you do
No one can see you like I do
