Don't want to sing about girls
Or what they mean to me
I'm too narcissistic for all the scenery
My mood is never as bright as it seems to be
Transition from Jekyll to Hyde too seamlessly

But if you can hear this, I've had enough
Of straight lines and heavy loads
I'm just not this tough.
After my kind of night that ends throwing up,
Once I clean up my mess with it, my white flag is up.

I'm losing weight for you
I'm losing weight for you
I'm losing weight for you
I'm losing weight for you

I was lost for a while without my style.
I was lost for a while, but I'm back.

But if you can hear this, I've had enough
Of straight lines and heavy loads
I'm just not this tough.
After my kind of night that ends throwing up,
Once I clean up my mess... (Oh, fuck it!)

I'm losing weight for you
I'm losing weight for you
I'm losing weight for you
I'm losing weight for you
I'm losing weight for you

I'm losing weight for you
I'm losing weight for you
(He's losing weight for you)
I'm losing weight for you
