I've been trying to rest nerves,
Leaning east one steady sway to learn;
You're never safe with places, showing reasons you've
been,
Hidden too long.
Child you must be tired, weak with weeks of anxious worry.
Asleep you've been withering for a stretch.

Leaning east, one steady sway to learn;
You're never safe with places, showing reasons you've
been,
Hidden too long.

Replace thoughts you've been so well,
Raving "lights have been forming shells".
Hidden too long.
Child you must be tired.
Raving "lights have been forming shells".

Leaning east, one steady sway to learn;
You're never safe with places, showing reasons you've
been,
Showing reasons you've been.

Fail, Oh I've been awake to fluttering tangents.
Whistling regret,
Prepare for such a wreck.
Rising what sounds are gathering to...
I've been leading noise astray.

Fail, Oh I've been awake to fluttering tangents.
Whistling regret,
Prepare for such a wreck.
I've been leading noise astray.

You're never safe, you're never safe.
Leaning east, one steady sway to learn;
You're never safe with places...
