Who's been telling lies and wearing the meaning out?
Don't you, don't you know I'm never alone?
Avoiding a reason, that I am an explanation
Put into you like it never happened.

You've been chasing them wondering where they've gone.
You've been chasing them.
Who is that singing?
(Who is the singing?)

You made a mistake and I got away with words,
Just hiding at all the right times.

You've been chasing them wondering where they've
gone.
You've been chasing them.
Who is that singing?
(Who is that singing?)

Oh weakness of mine,
Where are you roaming?
Stay and hear you're true love calling.

You've been chasing them wondering where they've
gone.
You've been chasing them.
Who is that singing?
(Who is that singing?)
